

Dear FCC,
Please allow Satellite Radio providers like XM to provide local programming like the weather and traffic reports. I travel from Half Moon Bay over a hill to the Silicon Valley for work and I can't receive decent reception of the local broadcast radio stations for this information. I listen to XM San Francisco Bay Area weather and traffic station to get this information in crystal clear audio.

Thank you,
David R. Lee